

BECOME A RACE CAR DRIVER!!!!

Want to be a Race Car Driver? Most people are under the impression that racing cars is unobtainable to the average person. Amateur racing with Cascade Sports Car Club (CSCC) and the International Conference of Sports Car Clubs (ICSCC) is not as expensive or difficult to get into as most would think. Budgets vary and sure some racers spend a good amount of money on racing, but you also have racers who race on a shoestring budget. These racers stretch their tires to the limit, race local, and rebuild their engines never!! With a wide range of classes, you can choose the budget minded classes or the not so budget minded classes!

This link to “Getting Started Racing with ICSCC” is a great source of information for what it takes to venture into making your racing dreams come true! Come join the fun!

International Conference of Sports Car Clubs

Visit www.icsc.com for a season schedule, competition regulations, forums, and other helpful information.